Have a safe and happy holiday season!

Audience Etiquette

Here are some simple audience etiquette rules that will help our performances be a more pleasant experience for everyone.

No food or drinks are allowed in the auditorium. No snacks of any kind. Everyone must be in a seat during the performances. Please do not allow children to run up and down the aisles and up near the stage. It is very distracting to the dancers and the audience. When leaving the auditorium for any reason, do not leave in the middle of a number. Leave in between numbers. No shouting or calling out names during the performance. This is a demonstration of the arts not a football or basketball game.

Tuition and Fees

All tuition and fees need to be paid by December 10, 2006. If accounts are not up to date, dancers will not be allowed to participate in the Christmas performance. Please help by making sure all tuition, costume, and performance fees are paid by December 10.

Backstage Helpers

We need parents to help backstage during the performance. Teachers will be asking for volunteers for the classes. If you would like to help, please let your child's teacher know.

South Point Ballet

Sleeping Beauty was a great success. We would like to thank everyone who helped backstage to make this performance the best we have ever had. Look for information on our next performance of Peter and the Wolf.
